

The Board of Directors of Dr. Sun Yat-sen Foundation of Hawaii
In Conjunction with the Ninth East-West Philosophers'
Conference
Presents

"Educating Sun Yat-sen:
Hawai'i and the Chinese Revolution"

Wednesday, June 1, 2005

Acknowledgements

Steering Committee:

Warren Luke, Steven Ai, Yen Chun, Joanne Tachibana,
Charlotte Vick

Mahalo to Authors

Yansheng Ma Lum & Raymond Mun Kong Lum
“Sun Yat-sen in Hawaii - Activities and Supporters”

Special Thanks (East-West Philosophers' Conference)

Roger T. Ames, Conference Director
Helen Griffin, Program Officer

Exhibit - Blossom Tyau

Volunteers from the United Nations Association - Hawai'i Division

Program Created by

Ryan Oshiro & June Wong of Deja Vu Designs

Visit our website at <http://www.sunyatsenhawaii.org>

Officers:

Warren Luke ~ Chairman

Steven Ai ~ President

Yen Chun ~ Vice President

C. F. Damon, Jr. ~ Vice President

Kenneth Chong ~ Vice President/Treasurer

Robert Lees ~ Executive Vice President

Joanne Tachibana ~ Secretary

Board Members:

Leigh-Wai Doo

Stanley W. Hong

Carolyn Luke

Charlotte Vick

Lucien Wong

Mission Statement

The Dr. Sun Yat-sen Hawai'i Foundation was formed in 1997 to research, chronicle, and exhibit Dr. Sun's links to Hawaii and the contributions of the people of Hawai'i to his work to create a modern China. The long-range mission of the Foundation is the creation of a significant memorial to Dr. Sun. The Foundation is a registered nonprofit organization and the recipient of grants from the State of Hawai'i and matching contributions by Charter Donors and Supporters.

Siegfried Ramler

Senior Adjunct Fellow, founder and former director of the Wo International Center at Punahou School, Honolulu. Columnist on international education issues, Independent School Journal, Washington, D.C. M.A., Political Science, University of Hawai'i.

Publications: Global Education for the 21st Century. Priorities in Education for the 21st Century in the Pacific Region. Linking Cousins of the Pacific: An Exploration of Hawai'i's Polynesian Roots in Tahiti.

Hao Ping

Hao Ping is Vice President of Peking University, a position he has held since June of 2001. Prior to his appointment to Vice President, Dr. Hao served Peking University in the roles of Assistant Director of Student Affairs. He remains Vice Chairman of Peking University's American Study Center, Deputy Dean of its Asia-Pacific Research Institute, and Vice Chairman of its Education Foundation. He is a full Professor in the Department of History.

In addition to his distinction in the fields of modern Chinese history and Sino-American relations, Hao Ping is a noted expert on the philosophy of Sun Yat-sen. Dr. Hao is currently Deputy Director for the International Research Center for Sun Yat-sen's Thought, and was a participant from 1998-2000 in the Sun Yat-sen Project, a research project sponsored by the Ancient Books' Reorganization Committee for Higher Education. His many publications include the book Sun Yat-sen's Revolution and the United States: An Unfortunate Ending-----John Leighton Stuart and China; and History of the Establishment of Peking University.

Hao Ping graduated from Peking University with a B.A. in history. He earned his M.A. in history from the University of Hawai'i, and went on to earn his Ph.D. from the Peking University School of International Relations.

Al Castle

Executive Director of the 111-year old Samuel N. and Mary Castle Foundation Mr. Castle is an independent scholar research and writing in the fields of phil-anthropic history, including Hawaiian history, U.S. intellectual history, U.S. diplomatic history and philosophy in literature.

Mr. Castle was educated at Punahou School, Colorado State University, the University of New Mexico and Columbia University.

Publications: "A Century of Philanthropy (rev. 2004); "Diplomatic Realism: WR Castle, Jr. and the making of U.S. Foreign Policy 1919-1953.

Reception in the Koi Ballroom 5:30 – 6:30pm

Catering by Sodexo-Inc.

Welcome by Steven Ai, President

Program in the Keoni Auditorium 7:00 – 9:00pm

“Educating Sun Yat-sen: Hawai'i and the Chinese Revolution”

Welcome Remarks by Warren Luke, Chairman
Introduction of Moderator by Steven Ai, President

Siegfried Ramler
Moderator, East-West Center

Hao Ping
Peking University

Al Castle
Samuel N. & Mary Castle Foundation

